Website:

Mowers reported on the new website. Google is requiring more verification from the township as a government entity has more stringent security precautions. The one remaining requirement is the need for permanent signage on the building. The Snowmobile Club will be contacted regarding outdoor signage for the township. Grimm moved Isaacson seconded to install signage with approval from the Snowmobile Club.

Other Business:

Nett will be attending the Kettle River Fire Meeting on February 17th.

Grimm moved and Isaacson seconded to accept the quote from Jerry's Roadside Mowing for mowing township roads in 2026.

Future:

The Board continues to discuss finding residents that might be interested in the Treasurer position.

Looking for storage for township records and equipment, the township will discuss with the Snowmobile Club having a storage container on the property.

Also to be discussed with the Snowmobile Club is the upcoming Annual meeting and elections in August and November.

Next meeting is Thursday, February 19th at 6:00pm

With no further business, Grimm moved and Nett seconded to adjourn the meeting

Respectfully Submitted, Mark Carlson Town Clerk
